

Karnov Group announces first-ever Nordic Audit and Accounting Award

Karnov Group, the Scandinavian market leader in providing unique and mission critical legal and tax information has announced the launch of its first-ever Nordic Audit and Accounting Award at the Nordic Accounting Conference 2018. The award is an additional step in the company's mission to become the indispensable partner for all legal, tax, and accounting professionals in the Nordic region.

Committed to providing unique and proprietary legal and tax information through a leading platform with more than 1,500 legal experts, Karnov Group reaffirms its role as an authority in the information services industry through the launch of its first-ever Nordic Audit and Accounting Award, rewarding academic excellence.

The award was granted during the Nordic Accounting Conference 2018 which gathered leading scholars from the fields of audit and accounting. The recipient of the award is Morten Jensen, PhD Fellow from Copenhagen Business School, for his research on earnings management in manager-owned firms.

“We have a strong legacy of providing best-in-class content through our unique platform, and with our mission to become the primary partner for all accounting, legal and tax professionals we are especially delighted to launch this award and thereby re-confirming our support for research within the field of audit and accounting”, said Flemming Breinholt, CEO Karnov Group.

The jury for the award consisted of prominent professors from across the Nordics, representing universities such as Stockholm School of Economics, NHH Bergen and University of Oulu.
